INDIE PRESS Placement Listings

This is a curated, invite-only list of our most in-demand indie press outlets. As a music blog ourselves, we've built direct, blog-to-blog relationships with some of the most buzzed-about indie publications. They trust us to present quality music releases to them. We usually get the music placed, but if for any reason it doesn't fit the platform's taste, we offer to switch to similar publications or give refunds. When discovery platforms become overcrowded, this pathway allows us to place artists directly within respected, sought-after indie media.

PR firms and music businesses may present these placements under their own brand.

James Agnew II

I was very excited when I learned that the PR team at RA listened to my music and was impressed enough to push me forward. The experience was nothing less of amazing and I am honored to be featured across their blogs. The communication from Melissa was consistent and she provided me with exceptional service when publishing my first blog. Thank you so much to everyone including the writers for being part of LUMEN history!

Sound Ballistics

They deliver what's promised and then some! A very valuable resource for artists and the music industry in general. Fast communication, on point deliveries, and on time publications. Will use again!

Yellow Majesty

Awesome services. Always in time and super friendly!
